

Namaste Culture IV parents,

We watched a film on Indus Valley Civilization. I hope the kids enjoyed it.

There will be no Balvihar on October 18, 2009. The next teaching session will be on October 25, 2009. During this class we will continue exploring ancient India. In this class Vinit will present the special days around the world and Krisha will present festivities in India. The details of which are discussed in the class.
