

Homework due 11/09/08

We read the story Lomri ki Chaturai in class. It was about a clever Fox and the Alligator. Please practice reading it at home and complete the worksheet that was handed out. Additional paper was also provided for answering questions. The answers can be written very simply. Most of the answers can be written using one or two words. The most important thing is that you understand what you write even if you write one word. If you have difficulty answering the questions, ask in class and we will help you.

In the next class we will practice reading as well as writing on the board. In Grammar, we will review Gender.

Don't forget to bring your homework and binders ☺

Thanks,
Alpana
